

Robert (Uri) Heller, Ph.D

Robert (Uri) Heller, Ph.D. has been a Psychologist, Coach, and Management Consultant for the past 30 years. He has the uniqueness of being a practicing Clinical Psychologist and Organizational Psychologist. His clinical and consulting experiences widely varies and includes working with the Office of Personnel Management on personal selection systems; helping franchise owners select and develop staff; working with companies in employee and team development; and assisting in disability and return to work cases. He is an expert in psychological assessment and has been contracted by employers, insurance, and worker compensation companies for diagnostic and treatment recommendations. On the academic side, he most recently was Co-Chair of the Department of Counseling Psychology and taught the psychological assessment sequences in the doctoral program at Adler University in Chicago. He previously served as chair of Masters in Public Service and Administrative Service Center at DePaul University. He obtained his doctorate from Illinois Institute of Technology and served on their faculty.

EDUCATION:

- Illinois Institute of Technology, Chicago, Illinois; Ph.D., Psychology
- Roosevelt University, Chicago, Illinois; M.A., Clinical Psychology
- University of Akron, Akron, Ohio; B.A., Psychology
- University of Wisconsin, Madison, Wisconsin; Wisconsin Primate Lab in Psychophysiology

CERTIFICATIONS:

- Licensed Psychologist - State of Illinois
- Qualified Psychological Examiner-Illinois Certification
- Certificates of Training: Custody Evaluations, Biofeedback, Divorce Mediation, Conflict Resolution, Positive Discipline, Rorschach-RPAS
- Courtesy Staff at Mercy Hospital and Mercy Works, Chicago, Illinois